

Invitation letter

On behalf of CRON Europe GmbH, I am very pleased to invite the delegation of Shanghai Publishing and Printing College to come to Düsseldorf, Germany from May 29th to June 1st, 2024 to attend the Druba Printing Exhibition in Germany and the launching ceremony of the bilingual textbook “Computer to plate of lithographic” jointly published by the college and our company. They will be here for four days.

Reasons for visiting:

Druba Printing Exhibition is the world's largest exhibition in the printing industry, and it is an important activity of communication, cooperation and research in the printing media industry. We hope to exchange experiences with global partners such as Shanghai Publishing and Printing College at this grand exhibition, and discuss the future cooperation. At the exhibition, we will also publicly release the teaching materials of printing technology, Computer to plate of lithographic, jointly published by our company and Shanghai Publishing and Printing College, so as to arouse the exchanges and cooperation among colleagues in the global printing industry.

Travel Plan:

On May 29th, Shanghai fly to Germany to attend the printing exhibition in Druba, Germany. And arranged the scene of the new textbooks release ceremony.

On May 30th, attend the launching ceremony of new textbooks and textbook promotion.

On May 31th, visit Druba Printing Exhibition, and participated in the "Bi Sheng Printing Cooperation Forum and Druba Dialogue" forum of China Printing Technology Association.
