Dear Professor Linlin Li,

I cordially would like to invite you to my university from July 22th to July 26th 2024 to do collaborative research about the phenomenon of propagating waves for some partial differential equations. Unfortunately, I don't have enough grants to support your travels. So, during the period of your stay in Japan, all expenses including air tickets, board and lodging should be borne by research funds from your university, University of Shanghai for Science and Technology.

Sincerely Yours
