Subject: Invitation to Visit the ONNL at the Department of Materials Science and Engineering, Seoul National University

Dear Professor Zhu,

On behalf of the Oxide Nanostructures and Nanoelectronics Lab (ONNL) in the Department of Materials Science and Engineering (MSE) at Seoul National University, I am delighted to extend a warm invitation to you to visit our laboratory.

We have been following your groundbreaking research in nanomaterials with great interest. Your contributions to the field have been highly influential, and we believe that a visit to our lab would provide a valuable opportunity for fruitful discussions and potential collaborations.

We are particularly interested in MXenes you synthesize. We believe that your expertise, coupled with the research being conducted in our lab, could lead to significant advancements in 2D materials.

We would be honored to host you, at our lab for a period of days (May 12-17, 2025). During your visit, we propose the following activities:

- Research Presentations: Opportunities for you, present your latest research findings, and for our lab members to showcase our ongoing projects.
- Lab Tours: A comprehensive tour of our facilities and equipment, highlighting our capabilities in [Mention specific equipment or techniques].
- Collaborative Discussions: Dedicated time for in-depth discussions on potential research collaborations and joint projects.
- Informal Interactions: Opportunities to interact with our faculty, students, and researchers in a relaxed setting.

We are flexible regarding the dates of your visit and are happy to accommodate your schedule. Please let us know your preferred dates and any specific requirements you may have.

To assist with your planning, we can provide information on travel arrangements, accommodation options, and local attractions.

Visitor Information:
