

February 11, 2025

Professor Che Liping
Director of the MPA Education Center
Business School
University of Shanghai for Science and Technology

Dear Professor Che,

On behalf of the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs at Syracuse University, I am writing to invite you to join a delegation organized by the Shanghai MPA Education Committee for a visit from July 17 to July 30, 2025.

During your visit, the Maxwell School will host a series of activities focusing on key topics related to teaching and research in public administration and policy. The delegation will participate in seminars and workshops led by Maxwell professors specialized in various areas of public administration and policy. The delegation will also meet with school and university administrators as well as leaders from relevant governmental and non-governmental agencies in Albany, New York City, Boston, and Washington, DC. Attached please see the proposed agenda.

I understand that your institution will cover all expenses associated with the visit. Should you need any other documents for visa application, please do not hesitate to contact me by phone at 315 443 3759 or via email at sjlux@syr.edu.

I look forward to welcoming you and the delegation to the Maxwell School.

Yours Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads 'Steve J. Lux'.

Steve J. Lux
Director, Executive Education Program
Maxwell School of Syracuse University